

Exam Invigilators and Lead Exam Invigilators

We are seeking Exam Invigilators to join our friendly exams team. In this role you will support students through the examination period to successfully sit their exams.

The hours will vary and will be based around your availability. Please note that the role requires prolonged periods of standing.

The salary is offered at £11.87 per hour (pay award pending).

This would be an ideal opportunity for someone who is looking for flexible working hours. You will need to be reliable, a good timekeeper, responsible, have good communication skills and the ability to work as part of a team. No experience necessary as full training will be given.

The job description for the role can be found here.

If you would like to apply, please complete a Support Staff Application Form (see section on vacancies page titled, 'How to apply.')

After completing this please return it to Miss Sarah Hewett, Headteacher's PA, either by email to: shewett@burgate.hants.sch.uk or by posting to the school's address.

Closing date for applications: On-going.
